

The Lord is my shepherd and because of His love, I have everything that I need. He lets me rest in fields of green and He leads me to quiet pools of fresh water. He renews my strength and He guides me in the right paths, as He has promised. Even if I go through darkness, I will not be afraid because my Lord is with me.

Author Unknown