

Constant Sorrow and Great Happiness

Heavenly Father, we have done many, many things that we should not have ever done. And You have provided us with seeing many, many things to let us know that You exist. Some of us bear life in constant sorrow and some of us find moments of great happiness. Whether in pain or a smile on our face, help us to find companionship or a place of peace. (We will never forget what all You have done for us and that we love You Lord. Amen.)

Ray House 2002.