

Describe The Beauty

A man and a woman find one another attractive.

How did this occur? Think back. Who saw whom first?

Describe the scene. What occurred? That's truly fantastic!

Between the first time you met and now, hopefully nothing went wrong.

Did they remind you of someone or was it a brand new experience?

Describe the feelings. What was it like? Praise God and give Him credit.

Over time, you both learned that you have differences and similarities.

What was your first big surprise? Think back as to whom surprised whom first.

Describe the surprise. What happened? Was it too much for you to handle?

To be the happiest person in the world, you have to be prepared.

When your loved one passes on, will there be a big hole in your heart?

Describe your thoughts. Will you be at a loss? Will you pause or move on?

God has been watching you grow up and He has been listening to your prayers.

What have you been looking for? Are you ready for His reply to your requests?

Describe the beauty. Is it physical or within? Let God be in control. Be happy and celebrate!

Ray House 2005