I Would Have You Smile Again

Where does one begin, when they've realized their life has fallen apart!
An outsider could easily remark, "Bet he wishes that he was never born."
Another stranger might question, "Is there something that you have lost?"
You could be thinking, "You can take my family away or break my body."

What could the Devil do to you in an attempt to separate you from Jesus?

We all have faults, some of us more than others. How strong is your faith?
"Lord, I hold to your words about salvation concerning eternal life in heaven."
Life is tuff! If a preacher always tells you otherwise, should you trust them?
Here are two well known settings where Satan was able to weaken individuals:
Satan deceived both Adam & Eve and Joseph's brothers sold him into slavery.

Those examples were in the past, has Satan decided what you plan to do next?
What will become of me? "Lord, I know you have a place prepared for me."
My name is Steven. "Satan, nothing you can do can take that away from me."
Thank you for these past years, Devil, you have caused grief now I am stronger.
You may not know who I am, but when it is over you'll know who's my Savior.

Thousands of years ago, scribes hand copied biblical text at an enormous cost.
Hundreds of years ago, printers through technology made the Bible affordable.
(And today) We have the Internet and this website has a Bible study that is free.
Until my physical life has ended, may God bless me with many "Things To Do."
I will not let go 'til we're in heaven or Jesus says, "I would have you smile again."
