

Risk Versus Rewards

Here it goes, there it goes, if you don't take action you'll never go anywhere.
To have success or at least try, you must put forth effort then hope for the best.
Want a date, want a mate, if you say no expect this part of life will go nowhere.
To have a child or at least try, you must find time together and let God do the rest.

Plant a tree in a small pot, let it grow, if you don't move it you'll have a small tree.
Stay inside or padlock your door, then watch the world pass you by one day at a time.
Life can be a desert, a forgotten oasis, if you say a prayer God is love He will not flee.
The past is the past or what happened, and trust God will bring all things perfect in time.

You are here, you are there, if you don't have faith you'll never find a place of peace.
To be in the US or the Middle East, does it make a difference where God's sends you?
See the trees, see the sand, if you say "Today, I'll live in Christ" you will achieve peace.
Risk of hell versus the rewards of heaven, on judgment day... What will God say to you?
