Until The Day We Die

Everyday your life as a Christian gets one day closer to your ultimate goal, life in heaven. What could accidentally -or- intentionally occur to prevent you from getting into heaven? (Before your personal alarm clock starts to ring, here are some scriptures to take to heart.)

“without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” Hebrews 11:6

“faith without works is dead” James 2:20. And if the reader just somehow happened to miss this warning, it is repeated once again in verse 26 “faith without works is dead”

“And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.” Revelation 20:12-13

Here is a scripture to help us summarize the above verses. “Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.” Matthew 7:14

Honoring God goes beyond becoming a Christian with faith and praising Him in worship. Some say, “God is merciful and full of grace” this is true, but faith without works is dead. Christianity is more than raising a sign in front of a building to tell everyone who you are. We have a great job! So let’s all do our best to help the church grow until the day we die.
