

What is Beautiful?

(If you see someone's name written on a sign) Will you be able to pronounce it properly?
 Tomorrow is another day God gave you ~ Will you be saying...I'm sorry that I never married.
 Some complain about working 6 ½ days a week. Others put on documents their age is Over 21.
 How are you doing? Some see this as an opportunity to tell others what's going wrong in their life.
 Some can turn something negative into a positive. And some can turn something positive into a negative.
 What if your power went out -or- you couldn't see? What if your phone stopped ringing -or- you couldn't hear?
 How do you see yourself? How do you respond to others? Do you like yourself? Are you friendly towards others?
 Everything you think starts in your mind. What is beautiful? If you're not satisfied, don't blame God.
If this is your thought, God doesn't need you to be critical – Who are you to bargain with our Creator about what needs to be done. Instead, we should be trying to find peace and enjoy life with what God considers what is beautiful?
